

The Basic Substance Abuse Counselor Certification Training Program
(Now receive all 180 clock Hours in one Program)
“New Weekend Schedule”
Starts October 28, 2011

Circle of Recovery, Inc. recognizes the need for a training system that provides courses to assist providers in effectively managing individuals who present with chemical dependency problems. Providers of chemical dependency services require knowledge and skills necessary to provide competent, quality based substance abuse treatment services. It is our aim to provide opportunities for these Social workers, Professional counselors, other human service professionals and Para-professionals to receive up- to- date, state-of-the-art education and training in addiction treatment service delivery.
